Some cobbler recipes, resemble a thick-crust, deep-dish pie with both a top and bottom crust. Cobbler's name comes from its cobbled texture, which is a result of spooning or dropping the topping over the fruit rather than distributing it equally. This way, the filling can peek through. The dough and the fruit filling cook together in a cobbler.
4. CANDIES-If your candy does not fit in any of the classes listed, then it cannot be entered. See definitions below.
Class 401: Divinity: Very sweet very soft candy made from white sugar, whipped whites of eggs, corn syrup, water, salt and flavoring. This type of candy typically has chopped pecans or walnuts in it.

Class 403: Fudge: A thick, firm, smooth candy that is set-up in a pan and cut into squares. There are varying degrees of difficulty with different recipes. Ingredients usually include butter, fat derived from chocolate, mild, and sugar. Other flavor variations might include peanut butter, marshmallow, white chocolate, etc. Nuts may be added.

Class 404: Nut Brittle Pieces: A candy made from sugar that has been cooked to a high temperature with nuts added. The resulting candy is hard and snaps easily, thus the term “brittle.”

Class 405: Bon-Bon Pieces or Truffles: a fondant, fruit, or nut center dipped in fondant or chocolate; Truffle- made with a chocolate ganache center coated in chocolate, cocoa powder, coconut, or chopped and toasted nuts

Class 406: Turtle Candies: Turtles are a candy made with pecans and caramel dipped in chocolate, with a shape resembling a turtle.

Class 407: Homemade Candy Bar: Any recipe used that mocks a candy bar such as a Payday, Musketeer, Snickers, Mounds, etc.

Candies will be entered as a baker’s dozen. Which means 13 candies. One will be used to judge by and then there will be 12 left to sell.
